

Behavioral Analysis Tactics and Techniques

This seminar was designed by Bill Martin for bodyguards, executive protection practitioners, security directors/managers and any security professionals looking to enhance their perception skills. Bill's experience includes:

Personal Protection Specialist (PPS), Former Director of Security for a large Faith Based Organization located in Times Square NYC for more than 10 years, Course Presenter at NJ Community College and Pennsylvania Institute of Criminology and Forensic Sciences, Student at numerous Homeland Security and FBI Courses on Behavior Science.

Content includes:

Behavioral Analysis Techniques: It's Use and Effectiveness

- Three Arms of Security - A Balanced Approach
- Four Broad Types of Violence
- Vulnerability Assessments
- Behavioral Identification It's Use and Effectiveness
- Understanding Behavior Through Leakage
- The Role of Fantasy
- Warning Signs, Indicators and Red Flags

Behavioral Analysis and Threat Management

- Threat Analysis – Four Phases
- The Reactions, Responses and Resources
- The Disturbed, Dangerous and Deviant
- Security Managers and Protective Details on Handling Threats
- The Complexity of Stalking
- How to Deal with and Respond to Disruptive and Combative Persons
- Verbal Intervention Strategies
- The use of Non Violent Physical Crisis Intervention (NVPCI)
- Effective Limit-Setting Tips
- A Multi- Disciplined Approach

Violence Prevention in the workplace

- Three Key Mitigating Factors
- People Protection and Revenge-Based Fantasies
- Violence and The Threat of Mass Murder
- Leadership In a Security Environment

Learn about EPI:

www.personalprotection.com

WE PUT THE PRO IN PROTECTION™

Contact us at: 212.268.4555

info@personalprotection.com